- SOME GOOD REASONS -

TO JOIN AIChE SAFETY & HEALTH DIVISION

- Receive Process Safety Progress, the quarterly technical publication of the Division, and Safety & Health News, the newsletter.
- Join 1600 other professionals in the area of process safety.
- Participate in the outstanding programming offered by the Division.
- Stay current in this rapidly expanding and changing area of technology.
- Network with other professionals in this area.

Clip and send to: American Institute of Chemical Engineers
                  Safety & Health Division
c/o William J. Bradford, Secretary/Treasurer
                  22 Deer Run Road
                  Brookfield, CT 06804

Enclose a check payable to AIChE for the annual dues of $38.00, which includes an annual subscription to Process Safety Progress (if outside USA, enclose an additional $30.00 for postage).

Member of AIChE? Yes ________  No ________

Name _____________________________________________________________

Address ___________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________

Telephone ____________________________